

JOIN A BCO AWARDS JUDGING PANEL

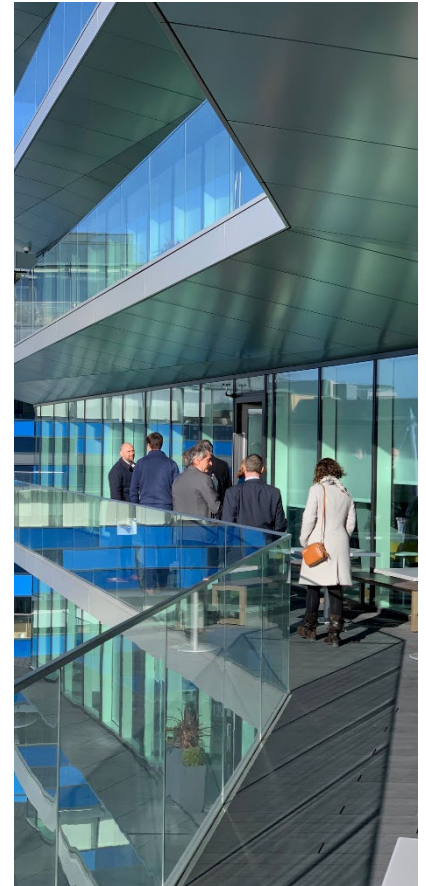

The BCO Awards Programme provides public recognition for top quality design and functionality and is a benchmark for excellence in office space. Over the years the BCO Awards Programme has grown to be one of the most prestigious accolades in the commercial property industry. This respect has been earned by the rigorous and detailed judging process that all entries go through.

WHAT'S INVOLVED

BCO Judging Panels are made up of five regional panels and one national panel, each consisting of up to six individuals representing different aspects of the commercial property industry.

To view the current panels please visit the BCO website <http://www.bco.org.uk/Awards/Judging.aspx>

Those wishing to become a judge must be members of the BCO and be aware of the amount of time required to participate in the judging process and events surrounding the awards. Judges are expected to attend all visits in their region. It is imperative that those standing for this position are aware of this commitment before submitting this application.

	Activity	Duration	Timeframe
Regional Judging	Project visits and Judges' Comments ¹	3-5 days	February – March
	Regional Awards Events ²	1 evening or lunch	April – May
	Awards launch event ³	1 evening	Late October
National Judging	Project visits	6-9 days	June – July
	De-brief meeting ⁴	½ day	end of July
	National Awards Dinner	1 evening	October

HOW TO APPLY

To register your interest in joining one of the BCO Judging Panels, please complete the form on page 2 and return it, with a copy of your current CV, to events@bco.org.uk

² It is expected that all regional judges will attend the regional awards presentation. This will either be an evening or lunchtime event dependant on the region.

³ The regional awards launch events will take place after the National Awards presentation in October and is an opportunity for the judges to showcase the regional winners, de-mystify the entry process and encourage entries for the following year.

⁴ The judges de-brief event is hosted by the National Judging Chair and attended by the Regional Judging Chairs to discuss the results of the National Judging and give feedback on all aspects of the awards/ judging process.
